Our family law department has an excellent reputation and we regularly receive referrals from other lawyers and professionals, as well as former clients.

The breakdown of a relationship can often be very traumatic. All of our clients are represented by a lawyer who specialises exclusively in family law and we ensure that you have the opportunity to meet with us face-to-face and to speak to us whenever you need to.

We adopt a constructive and conciliatory, rather than an aggressive approach, to resolving family problems arising from relationship breakdown. This is, however, balanced with the belief that, in appropriate cases, we may have to be tough.

What we do

Our lawyers offer expertise in all areas of family law and issues arising from relationship breakdown, including:

- Financial arrangements on separation and divorce
- Arrangements for children including residence and contact
- International aspects
- Trust Deeds and Cohabitation Agreements
- Tax Planning
- Civil Partnership advice
- Pre-Nuptial and Pre-Registration Agreements
- Mediation
- Child Abduction
- Inheritance Act disputes
- Collaborative Law

What we achieve

We pride ourselves on our discretion and always treat all our cases with the strictest of confidence. Some examples of the kind of cases we deal with include:

- A financial relief case in which, after extensive enquiry, assets of over £5million were found on disclosure following inspection appointments and the extensive use of experts.
- More straightforward cases involving cohabitation disputes or financial provision on divorce. This can involve assets ranging from modest to many millions of pounds.
- Drafting Pre and Post Nuptial Agreements.
- Disputes about contact and residence and also public law care proceedings.
- A financial case involving complex pension assets with older parties where the focus was on financial security on retirement.
- Acting for clients where there are offshore assets and trusts. Also cross jurisdiction cases involving Europe, the USA and the Far East.
- Acting for a same sex couple who planned to register a civil partnership and required a Pre-Registration Agreement in order to protect their respective assets.
- Providing a mediation service for a number of separating couples who were anxious to resolve finances and arrangements for their children in a civilised environment and with the expertise of a mediator neutral.

How you pay

We act for private paying clients and, if you are eligible, we can undertake publicly funded work at our Streatham office.
